

Dearest Julietta!

I sent you a letter to Gusti on Sept. 12, and just learned that one is not allowed here, to include anything in one's letters. Therefore I cannot send you such (forwarding) letters from now on, and you can't send me any of Gusti or Mia. You can then only tell me the most important contents (of those letters), and I will do the same. I continue to be fine, my biggest joy consists of knowing my children and grandchildren are well taken care of, that they are comfortable this is the most important. You all need not worry about me. I shall write to Fritz Balla and Malden Gruic, to keep in touch, not for any other reason. I just now learned, that Boni has a favorable letter from Mia which he will bring to me. But this card has to be mailed immediately, so I can't tell you more, except I hope that you have a lively correspondence with Mutti and already know everything anyhow. Your answers to me have to be typed and contain nothing superfluous. Every sentence must have significance. I hope you are well, greet Mrs. Alice and Gretli and I embrace you as your very loving Ogrosl. Baunau came in time with a sweet letter from Mutti who is very well.
